

Erasmus+ Info Action Day

On 28 February, 2014 AEGEE-Yerevan and the EU Centre in Armenia launched the first “Erasmus+ Info Action Day” youth event (at the EU Centre in Armenia), which aimed at raising the awareness of the Armenian students, as well as the civil society youth organizations on the new educational and training possibilities provided by the European Union.

More than 60 Armenian students, activists from various regions of Armenia, as well as the representatives of different civil society organizations had the chance to explore the new educational and training possibilities provided by the European Union. One of the main objectives of the Info Action Day was providing the interested young people with information support, including consultancy and guidance. The participants also had the possibility to ask their questions to the speakers of the event, as well as to develop multilateral discussions on the ongoing educational programs in Europe.

Ambassador Mr. Trian Hristea opened the Info Action Day

Taking into consideration the big public interest and the success of the “Erasmus+ first Info Action Day” on the 7th of March 2014 the second “Erasmus+ Info Action Day” youth event was organized at EU Centre in Yerevan.

The Head of the EU Delegation to Armenia, Ambassador Traian Hristea opened the Info Action Day. In the words of Ambassador Hristea Erasmus+ supports organisations to work in transnational partnership and to share innovative practices in the fields of education, training, youth and sport. “This programme gives opportunities to students, trainees, staff and volunteers to spend a period abroad to increase their skills and employability at home,” the Ambassador said.

This time more than 70 students, activists from various regions of Armenia and the representatives of different civil society youth organizations from Armenia, Georgia, Moldova, Italy, Spain, Czech Republic and Turkey had a chance to explore the new educational and training possibilities offered by the European Union. On the local level, AEGEE-Yerevan considers it very important to raise the awareness of the Armenian students, as well as the civil society youth organizations on the new educational and training possibilities provided by the European Union.
